Interested Families

6.6 The Child List in Childware can be used to gather and document information from interested families who have not yet submitted all required PHLpreK application documents, or for families whose children are not yet age eligible for the PHLpreK program. Programs can use this list to keep track of interested families and conduct follow up to collect outstanding application documents. As outlined in the Waitlist section, only families with complete enrollment documentation that are determined eligible for the current program year can be added to the waitlist.

6.7 Once complete Application documentation is received, the child can be added to either the program waitlist or entered for enrollment approval if there is a vacant seat.

Discharge Process

6.8 Programs are responsible for maintaining an active list of approved enrollments in Childware so that vacant PHLpreK seats can be filled with eligible children.

As outlined in the PHLpreK contract, children should be discharged under the following circumstances:

- Unless prohibited by DHS, a program must begin serving a child within 7 program days of the approved enrollment start date by PHMC. If the child does not attend within that timeframe, before discharging request confirmation from the family, if the family identifies a health related reason for the child not starting on the original start date, then allow 21 days before proceeding to discharge the child from the system.
- If a family notifies the program that the child no longer resides in the Philadelphia city limits, the Provider must inform the family immediately that the child is no longer eligible for PHLpreK and must be discharged by the end of a 30 day period. The Provider should work with the family to secure alternate funding or find another appropriate care setting and may do so for a period of up to 30 days before the child is discharged from the PHLpreK program.
- If attendance of a chronically absent child does not improve after 30 days of working with families to improve attendance, a child may be eligible for discharge with approval from the Administrative Intermediary.

6.9 Programs are also responsible for entering discharge dates for all enrollments At the close of a PHLpreK program Year
